County roasts Thompson

Shirleyan Beacham Phelps

Editor

Harry L. Thompson, curator of the Port O'Plymouth Museum (among other things) is one of WCGS' board members – everyone who knows Harry loves him and knows how much he loves to talk! If you've ever taken one of his history / genealogy classes – you came away with more stories and history than you can remember. Harry's also known for the oyster roasts he throws at his Bertie County home. Well, the tables have been turned. Recently, folks in Washington County gathered at the Western Steer to roast the roaster. Harry was lured to the affair by another storyteller – Dow Jones, Jr. Harry thought it mighty strange when a planned meeting in Martin County got changed at the last minute to a location in Plymouth. Among the many guests were Harry's wife, children and grandchildren and a number of former students and/or teachers. It was a fitting affair for a man who has done so much for Washington County – If you don't know Harry, make it a point to visit the museum and go prepared to spend some time – you won't walk away in a hurry – nor will you want to – he'll make your visit worth your while –

Some online queries from 2000

Philip J. Simmons of 10 Joubert Rd., Camptonville CA 95992 (530-632-1612 or 530-289-3317) requested help regarding his father's family. P. J. Simmons was born in "MacKey's Ferry, N.C." in 1906. His mother's maiden name was Ailene Brickhouse; his father's was Jefferson Davis Smmons.

Philip Simmons wrote further: "My paternal G.F., Jeff Davis Simmons, alleged to have been employed by predecessor to U. S. Coast Guard – Life Saving Service. He left that job and was killed in an industrial accident "fell in a lime pit and was killed" – Philip's father, P. J. Simmons, was about 14 at that time; two other brothers (names unknown) one of whom worked in the Chevrolet plant, Oakland, CA during World War II. He died before the end of the war; a sister named Lillian who married a Norfolk, Virginia police officer, Ben Dow; and had a number of children and lived many years in Norfolk. My father married Alice Evans about 1925 in Norfolk. – If you can help, please share with WCGS and with Philip (at ww.sleighville@ips.net)

Vernon L. Everett Jr. writes:

(Labor Day) Your comments (August about handwriting are quite true. Case in point, Bible Record of Wm. M. Biggs pg 42 c43:

Amariah Biggs (1767-1827), the Morratock minister, married Dorothy circa 1790 in Halifax Co., N.C.

Dorothy is thought to have been a Martin or Martyn as it is spelled in the Bible. Amariah and Dorothy's third child was named Steven Martyn Biggs.

Steven or Stephen Martyn Biggs named their 3rd child William Martyn Biggs. Stephen had married Nancy Ann Ambrose.

William Martyn Biggs married 1st Mary Frances Shehan, April 4, 1866 according to the Bible Record or October 30th 1866 according to page 40 of WCCS Washington Co. Marriages. Mary Frances was the daughter of James & Aquilla Shehan. Their children were:

Indiana (Orra Ida) 1869-1887?

Emery Cartwright (Carter E.) 1874 or 1876 - 1918

Harrison Ellsworth 1872 - Before 1880

Aquilla Caroline (Carrie) 5 June 1878 - Oct. 15, 1964 - Carrie married Marcus D. Clifton and married 2nd John B. Kettle who was a comrade of her father's in the Union Army.

William S. 1877 - Living 1900.

William Martyn Biggs married 2nd Martha Ann Hufton, widow of Sylvanius Phelps and daughter of James M. Hufton and Maria Ellis, the 2nd wife of Hufton. James M. Hufton married 3rd Mary (Polly) Phelps Apr. 24, 1845 - Tyrrell Co.

William and Martha had only 1 child Virginia Ann (Jennie) born Aug. 6, 1880, death date unknown. Jennie married James Preston Hassell, son of Solomon Hassell and Mariah Hufton.

The census records and the Bible records do not agree on some of the dates.

There were 3 marriages in the Bible record that were omitted from the WCCS copy.

The only other Shehan found in the early census was Margaret, who married Solomon Dunbar. The Shehan family was in some way related to the Jethro family.

Other references: 1860 WCCS Census page 5; 1860 WCCS Census page 53

The census indicates that Margaret and Mary Frances were twins. I have done extensive research on the Huftons, Hassells and Biggs Families of Pea Ridge. wccgs

Old Naming Pattern for Children

The first son was usually named after the father's father.

The second son was usually named after the mother's father.

The third son was usually named after the father.

The fourth son was usually named after the father's eldest brother.

The fifth son was usually named after the mother's eldest brother.

The first daughter was usually named after the mother's mother.

The second daughter was usually named after the father's mother.

The third daughter was usually named after the mother.

The fourth daughter was usually named after the mother's eldest sister.

The fifth daughter was usually named after the father's eldest sister.

This pattern was not always followed exactly but most would usually keep the pattern for the first three children. If there was a name that was found in every generation, (example: John, William, Edward, Charles, etc.) then somewhere in their children you will surely find these names. If one is stuck on finding parents for an ancestor, try this pattern to give one a suggestion as to a name to search for. (Source: Unknown)

PERSONAL STUFF: Computers are great – but when you mess up – it's a major catastrophe! Last month's issue of the newsletter was meant to include quite a few records but because I can't get my act together with Word, it ended up short. Same story this month – I "grew up" (in my late years) learning Word Perfect and feel I can work my way around about anything but trying to get text and pictures formatted into a Word document just doesn't work out for me. If you noticed "B"s in strange places – that's the reason. My Beacham relatives had not had a reunion for about 50 years, more or less, until 23 September when 68 of us met at Cobbs Restaurant in Williamston and spent a little time getting to know each other. wccgs

Additional Online Queries: Ginny "Gordon Basnight lists Elsberry (b. about 1817) Ambrose's first wife as Priscilla Phelps (born about 1823.) Do you happen to know who Priscilla's parents and/or siblings were? Just curious which Phelps family she belongs to. (Answer to: rockster@harborside.com) or to WCCGS

Margie Mealor is trying to find information / parents of her great grandmother, Lillian Ayers, born Washington County after 1860 (Margie's grandmother was born 1888 and married Taylor Walker Davis.) Answer to: mlsmnc@aol.com or to WCCGS.
